Nixon Proposes Far More Land Retirement

Effective Price Props To Be Installed if GOP Leader Is Elected

SIOUX FALLS, S. D. (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon proposed to Midwestern farm voters today what he called "an effective system" of price supports and a greatly expanded land retirement program.

Once price-depressing surplus farm stocks are reduced to bring supply into a better relationship with demand, he said, "we should move to a long-term price support system with levels based on an average of market prices over the immediately preceding crop years."

The Republican presidential candidate outlined a six-point program to "keep new, burdensome surpluses from accumulating" in a campaign address prepared for delivery at the National Plowing Contest. Sen. John F. Kennedy, his Democratic rival, proposed a six-point program of his own before the same group Thursday.

Nixon did not spell out details of his price support ideas—or say at what crop-to-crop levels he is aiming.

But he declared: "Price supports have a place, and an important place, in a dynamic program for farm progress. The challenge before us is to find ways to use them intelligently to help farmer."

It was the second phase of his two-part approach to the farm, which he called "Operation Safe-guard."

The first phase, which he offered last week at Guthrie Center, Iowa, and called "Operation Consume," is designed to reduce the current 9-billion-dollar government-held surplus to manageable levels over a period of four years.

His program today called for: 1. The "substantial expansion" of the soil bank program on a "temporary basis" by stepped-up voluntary retirement of productive as well as marginal lands for periods of from 3 to 10 years, at fair rentals, where they add to excess production.

2. An "effective system" of price supports, saying "first we must get through the transition period of cutting down the price-depressing surplus that overhangs the market, and of bringing agriculture into better balance." He generalized on this, but said that the U. S., by putting aside "self-serving political" should free itself from "fixations upon any pet formulas, any slogans and symbols."

3. A full mobilization of the rural development program for low income farm families to provide more full-time and part-time job opportunities by encouraging local industrialization.

4. Meeting the cost-price squeeze head-on through support of producer cooperatives "and by going all-out" to find new markets at home and abroad, strengthening credit facilities, marketing service and production aids to hold down costs.

5. A crash agricultural research program to reduce production and distribution costs and determine new industrial and other uses for farm crops.

6. Creation of a presidential council of farmers and ranchers to give advice on farm programs.

Fund Collections Hit 10 Per Cent

A total of $3,467, about 10.7 per cent of the $32,300 goal, has been turned in at Pickaway County Community Fund headquarters.

This is the first scanty report of collections by Industrial, Business and Special Groups Divisions.

Solicitation in these groups is to end tomorrow. Residential and County Divisions will begin their weeklong drives Monday, with the whole campaign to be completed by October 3.

Soviet Sub Spotted Off Newfoundland

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy has spotted a Soviet submarine—and maybe two—lurking about in the North Atlantic near two Soviet ships that have been stationed there for several days.

The sub was seen twice at different times, or else there are two of them. What the Soviet tanker and tug are doing in the area off Newfoundland's Grand Banks is not known.

The Navy said Thursday night that a Neptune patrol plane made radar contact with a submarine four miles from the Soviet tanker Kokand about midnight Tuesday. The Navy plane switched on a powerful searchlight and sighted a heavy wake left by a submerging sub, which sank out of sight as the plane passed over.

Some 5 1/4 hours later, the U.S. patrol plane saw a submarine snorkel sticking up from the water 10 miles astern of the tanker. A Soviet helicopter, which had previously been seen on the deck of the tanker, was hovering above the spot. The submarine dived when the American plane approached. The Navy said the two incidents, and other unidentified contacts in the area, "lead to the conclusion that there probably are two submarines operated with a Soviet tug and tanker."

The presence of the two surface ships, both heavily equipped with electronic devices, had started speculation that they had something to do with some spectacular space experiment the Soviet Union might try to bring off while Premier Nikita Khrushchev is at the United Nations session in New York.

Kentucky Assembly Near OK on Bonus

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—The general assembly had the bonus and medical care bills up for final passage today with no major opposition in sight.

The bonus bill, extending payments to some 100,000 out-of-state Kentucky war veterans was before the Senate.

The medical care bill, appropriating $925,000 to match federal funds to ailing $2.8 million during the 1960-62 biennium, was ready for a vote in the House.

TODAY'S first report on how collections are going is meager. Only two or three solicitors have reported to headquarters.

More complete reports are due today and tomorrow. Solicitors have reported to captains that gifts are good this year, but captains of the various divisions have not yet made partial reports.

Handling solicitations throughout the county are Lawrence Reid and Frank Bowling Jr. They will direct the more than 100 volunteer workers who will ask their neighbors for fund gifts next week.

Hiram Hatcher, Industry Division chairman, reported today that at least a third of the division goal has been reached in the first four days, but a partial total has not been reported to headquarters.

Today Reid announced the names of the township and community chairmen. Several solicitors will work under the guidance of each chairman.

Here are the captains: Monroe, Mrs. Richard Phillips; Muhlenberg, Mrs. Tommie Pettibone; Darby, Mrs. Earl Liff; Scioto, Mrs. Donald Smith;

New Holland, Robert Kirk; Pickaway, Mrs. Robert Young; Washington, Russell Waidelich; Circleville, Mrs. Romaine Wilson; Saltercreek, Mrs. Joseph Valentine; Wayne, Mrs. William Hoffman Jr.; Jackson, Mrs. Gene Hoover; Ashville, Mrs. Joe Vause and Mrs. William Trimble;

Tito Labels Self as Bridge Between Russia, America

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev looked at his foreign minister, Andrei A. Gromyko, and smiled. He seemed pleased.

On the rostrum at the U.N. General Assembly session was the self-assured enigma of the cold war, President Tito of Yugoslavia. He had just remarked about the situation in the Congo.

An onlooker wondered: Were Tito and Khrushchev much closer than the world outside the Red orbit might suspect? Tito claims to be a neutral, but his Assembly address indicated neutrality heavily weighted on the Soviet side.

Tito was publicly thrown out of the Communist satellite family by Stalin in 1948, ostensibly in a fight over Moscow's right to dictate. He never got back in, although he came close just before the revolution in Hungary tossed the Communist world into an uproar.

Now, in the light of the ideological row with the Red Chinese,

Soviet Drops Blockbuster Proposals on U.N. Parley

Ike, Khrush Step Up Duel In Diplomacy

NEW YORK (AP)—Both U.S. President Dwight Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev have stepped up the pace of their duel in personal diplomacy.

He also proposed moving the U.N. out of New York, shaking up its organization and eliminating the office of secretary-general.

Eisenhower had appointments today with Syvanus Olympio, premier of the Togolese republic, and Mohammed Naim, deputy prime minister of Afghanistan.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower probably would confer privately with more heads of state when he returns to New York next Monday.

Among the statesmen he will meet next week will be Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan who finally decided to enter the U. N. arena here.

The chances that Eisenhower, Macmillan and Khrushchev—three of the four principals of the Paris summit fiasco last May—might get together seemed slight.

French President Charles de Gaulle, the fourth man at the Paris summit has shown no signs of coming to New York.

Khrushchev, ardently courting the new African nations, met in private with Kwame Nkrumah, president of Ghana.

Later, he went to a Togolese reception at the Plaza Hotel and heard a demonstrator yell at him, "Drop dead you bum!"

Some 3,000 persons on the streets and in the hotel lobby answered Khrushchev's smiles with boos and hissing. He greeted out a single Russian word, "savages!"

President Tito of Yugoslavia appeared at the same reception a few minutes ahead of Khrushchev. Tito came there after an hour's conference with Eisenhower in the President's hotel suite.

Hagerty said he could not report details of the conversation because he was "in and out of the room." He declined to say whether Eisenhower had invited Tito to travel around the United States while here. But he said the talk was in a friendly atmosphere.

Earlier, Eisenhower held separate conferences with Nkrumah, and with Saeb Salam, Premier of Lebanon, and with Bishwesar Prasad Koirala, prime minister of Nepal.

The President had a private luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria for the heads of all the Latin American delegations — except Cuba and the Dominican Republic. In a speech, he told the delegates the American nations were "bound by things of the spirit" and not by geography alone.

Police Confiscate Weapons At Castro Party in Harlem

NEW YORK (AP)—Police confiscated two knives and a gun from among 250 persons attending a party Thursday night for Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro at his Harlem hotel.

Repercussions continued from the slaying of a Venezuelan child, innocently caught in a battle between rival Cuban groups in a restaurant.

At the party in the Hotel Theresa, detectives found the weapons as they frisked persons entering the 11th-floor skylight room. The gun was carried by one of Castro's guards. For future reference, police photos were taken of all guests.

Otherwise it was a peaceful affair. An organization called the Fair Play for Cuba Committee presented Castro with a bust of Abraham Lincoln.

Outside the hotel, Communist party members distributed leaflets entitled "Harlem moves for freedom" to an estimated crowd of 2,000.

Earlier in the day, Castro denounced as "lies" newspaper accounts of how Magdalina Urdaneta, 9, was fatally wounded by a stray bullet Wednesday in a West Side restaurant.

The girl, visiting here with her parents from Caracas, was shot in the back. She died Thursday morning in a hospital.

Police said the fight was touched off, and the shots fired, by Castro sympathizers who spotted anti-Castro men in the restaurant. A pro-Castro man was shot in the shoulder and anti-Castro troops were beaten.

Castro blamed the shooting on enemies of his regime, saying: "Sad. They printed lies in the newspapers. The men who made the fire (fired the shots) were the same men who killed 20,000 Cubans and were welcomed to the United States. The United States welcomes all kinds of war criminals. This is the consequence."

It was a fairly quiet day on the picketing and demonstration front. Pickets at the United Nations building were confined to eight corral-like enclosures.

Hospitalized Persons May Register

A resident of Pickaway County who is confined to a hospital outside of the county may register for the coming election. This provision was made in the Ohio Revised Code but was overlooked until yesterday by the local elections board.

Persons confined in a hospital outside of the county may register if a responsible person and resident of Pickaway County takes the registration forms to them.

Forms may be obtained at the Board of Elections office in the basement of the courthouse. After completion of the form they must be returned to the office before 9 p. m. next Wednesday.

No Survivors Found In Military Wreckage

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—Search ships found a "lot of bodies in life jackets" but no survivors today amid the wreckage of a U.S. Marine Corps transport plane which crashed in the Pacific with a Marine crew of 6 and 23 Navy men aboard.

The U.S. Navy said all apparently perished but destroyers carried on the search of the crash area 180 miles south-southeast of Okinawa.

At the Soviet mansion on Park Avenue, where Premier Nikita Khrushchev is staying, no pickets appeared during the day.

Thursday night, however, about 75 demonstrators marched in orderly fashion along East 68th street near his headquarters.

At Castro's hotel, there were plenty of police but no pickets. Khrushchev got a loud round of boos from about 3,000 persons Thursday night outside the fashionable Plaza Hotel as he arrived for a reception given by the Togo

Ike's Speech Gets Applause, Brickbats from West Europe

LONDON (AP)—President Eisenhower's speech to the U.N. General Assembly brought the American leader both applause and brickbats in Western Europe today.

Many commentators saw his address as a blunt challenge to the Soviet Union to throw its weight behind the United Nations in the cause of easing world tensions.

But Eisenhower also drew a measure of criticism for not including some startling new proposal.

Shotgun Blast Halts Burglary

Three Juveniles, One Adult Captured

An attempted burglary at the North Drive-In was topped at 4:15 a. m. today when theater owner William Ballou wounded one of three juveniles and adult with a shotgun blast.

Sheriff's deputies and local police said Ballou fired the shot when the adult and juveniles all from the Waverly started to run. They surrendered without a struggle following the blast.

The wounded juvenile, 17, was treated at Berger Hospital, then taken to the County Jail. Deputy Dwight Radcliff said pellets struck the youth in the right leg, side and face. He was scheduled for further treatment today at the hospital.

The adult was identified as Ralph Eugene Nunley, 21, Route 2, Waverly. Sheriff Radcliff said the three juveniles will be referred to local juvenile authorities.

Ballou said he heard the four persons trying to force a door at the theater's projection booth and concession building. He notified sheriff Radcliff and deputies who rushed to the scene along with local police.

THE theater owner said the four started to run when one of the cruisers neared the drive-in area. He said the shot stopped them.

Sheriff Radcliff said two of the juveniles are 16 and the adult 21. Earlier in the night at 12:30 a. m. the sheriff and Deputy Charles Felky investigated a burglary at Thompson's Drive-In Restaurant on Route 23 two miles south of here.

Sheriff Radcliff said entry was made by breaking a window and unlocking door hasps. He said the restaurant was ransacked, but nothing was reported missing.

The sheriff said it was the second burglary at the drive-in restaurant since Sunday night. The entry last night was discovered by Deputy Felkey while on routine patrol.

Theater owner Ballou today commended the sheriff and police departments for their quick response to his call for aid. He praised the officers' efficient service rendered in spite of the long hours they already had worked during the night.

Red Chinese Face Rebuff By U.N. Again

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Red China's perennial bid for a U.N. seat appeared headed for another flat rebuff in the powerful steering committee today despite Communist efforts.

The United States was expected to call on the committee to shelve the explosive seating issue for another year, and thus avoid a long, bitter debate in the 96-nation General Assembly.

Observers predicted only seven members of the 21-nation steering group would oppose sidetracking the question. Those understood to oppose bypassing debate on the seating issue are the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, Romania, Ceylon, Yugoslavia, Iraq and Ireland.

India has spearheaded the seat-peiping move in recent years, but with the bitter Chinese-Indian border dispute still unsettled, she has stepped aside and let the Soviet Union do the spadework.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said on the eve of his departure from Moscow that Red China should have the seat now held by the Nationalists. But with Moscow embroiled in an ideological squabble with the Communist Chinese, the Soviets are reported not too enthusiastic about pushing Peiping's cause in the U.N.

If defeated in the steering committee, the Communists are expected to wage a fight to overturn the decision when the agenda goes before the Assembly for approval, but diplomats expressed doubt if the Reds have enough strength to win out.

New Disarmament Talk Setup Urged; End to Protectorates Wanted

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Nikita S. Khrushchev presented the United Nations today with a new three-stage disarmament plan and demanded immediate elimination of all colonies in the world. He declared President Eisenhower was risking World War III by his policy on aerial intelligence activities.

Khrushchev rammed his power-house proposals into the hopper of the historic 15th U.N. General Assembly session as his personal diplomacy duel with President Eisenhower got into high gear.

After broaching his disarmament plans and his proposals on colonial areas, the Soviet leader launched into a bitter attack on the President on the basis of the U2 spy plane incident of last May, which preceded the blowup of the Paris summit conference.

He said the plane incident was particularly significant because President Eisenhower "himself declared the aggressive flights of the American planes a normal business allegedly necessary for the security of the United States."

"At the same time," said Khrushchev, "the U.S. government arbitrarily assumed the right to send such planes in the future. This is why, since the matter concerns the violation of the sovereign rights of not only

'Complacency and Relaxation' Are Hazards, Kennedy Says

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy, hitting back hard at Vice President Richard M. Nixon, declared today that the American people are uneasy "at the present drift in our national course" and by the "relative decline in our prestige."

The Democratic presidential nominee said he expects to lose the election if he is wrong about this.

Wednesday in criticizing Kennedy's campaign calls for greater strength and national effort.

Kennedy asserted anew that it endangers the nation to hide any of the country's weaknesses from the people.

Nixon had called Kennedy a spokesman for national disparagement and charged that his "terribly naive" behavior while Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is in the country is a risky matter.

In bristling phrases in a campaign speech prepared for a rally in Denver's Civic Center, Kennedy replied that to preach "complacency and relaxation"—and "to say that all is well when all is peril"—is the greater hazard.

The Massachusetts senator said he stakes his candidacy on his belief that the people share "the single assumption that the American people are uneasy at the present drift in our national courses—that they are disturbed by the relative decline in our vitality and prestige—and that they have the will and strength to start America moving forward again."

If he is wrong about this, Kennedy said "I fully expect to lose this election."

He added: "But if I am right—and I firmly believe that I am—then those who have held back the growth of America for the past eight years will be rejected this November, and America will turn once again to the leadership of the Democratic party."

Not once did the Democratic candidate identify Nixon by name, but the charges he rebutted were those voiced by Nixon in Springfield, Mo., Wednesday and on earlier occasions. One was that Kennedy was selling America short.

"There are those who say that to call for greater effort and greater strength is to sell America short," said Kennedy.

"But I do not equate criticism of Republican leadership with criticism of our country."

"On the contrary, it is because I have faith in this country—because I think it can do more and better—that I am calling for greater efforts and leadership."

"It is not naive to call for increased strength. It is naive to think that freedom can prevail without it."

the Soviet Union but of other states as well, the question of the aggressive actions of the United States must be dealt with by the United Nations at its plenary session.

Khrushchev proposed establishment of a new disarmament body in which neutral and uncommitted nations would be represented, apparently discarding the 10-nation Communist-Western disarmament commission.

He proposed a three-stage plan to outlaw all military rockets and rocket carriers and presented a draft treaty called "basic provisions of the treaty on general and complete disarmament."

Khrushchev's disarmament proposals were spelled out in documents distributed before he spoke, and he called the assembly's attention to those documents.

The proposals were circulated a day after President Eisenhower's challenging address asking the Soviet Union to use the U.N. as the main clearing house for disposal of perilous issues.

These proposals were circulated in advance of the Soviet premier's anxiously awaited appearance on the Assembly rostrum, a day after President Eisenhower's challenging address to the Soviets to use the United Nations as the main clearing house for disposal of perilous issues.

The proposals were in the form of separate statements—called declarations of the Soviet government—on disarmament and colonialism. The Khrushchev proposal on disarmament pictured the Soviet Union as favoring strict international controls, but these were not spelled out. The declaration stated the U.S.S.R. "is ready for new negotiations."

The Soviets put forward this arms proposal:

1. In the first 18 months the powers would stop producing means of delivering nuclear weapons on targets. They would destroy stockpiles, dismantle foreign bases, withdraw foreign troops cut armed forces to 1,700,000 each for the U.S.S.R. and the United States, reduce conventional arms accordingly with control from "beginning to end."

2. The powers would ban weapons of mass destruction.

3. The powers would abolish armed forces and armaments, keeping only limited police and militia contingents from which the United Nations might draw to preserve world security.

The issue of elimination of bases has been one upon which negotiations have floundered. The West insists bases must be maintained until strict international controls are in effect.

The Soviet plan is purported to aim at eventual total world disarmament.

The declaration said: "It is high time to put an end to the maneuverings and delays. The solution of the disarmament problem cannot be postponed any longer. The elaboration of a treaty on general and complete disarmament cannot be put off any more."

The Soviet leader, whose policy sustained a severe setback recently in Africa on the issue of order in the newly independent Congo made a strong new bid for support of the Asian-African bloc which had opposed the Soviet stand a week before.

"No one can say now," said Khrushchev's declaration, "that the peoples of Asia, Africa, and Latin America cannot govern themselves. Gigantic forces awake for the construction of a new, independent life, and their spirits rose."

The Khrushchev statement came only minutes after a leading African figure, President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana, had denounced the French on charges of colonialism in North Africa and demanded that the United Nations turn over its functions in the Congo to the independent African states.

Nkrumah also supported the Soviet bid to seat Red China in the United Nations.

The African leader received a 58-second ovation at the end of his speech.

ly in Africa on the issue of order in the newly independent Congo made a strong new bid for support of the Asian-African bloc which had opposed the Soviet stand a week before.

"No one can say now," said Khrushchev's declaration, "that the peoples of Asia, Africa, and Latin America cannot govern themselves. Gigantic forces awake for the construction of a new, independent life, and their spirits rose."

The Khrushchev statement came only minutes after a leading African figure, President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana, had denounced the French on charges of colonialism in North Africa and demanded that the United Nations turn over its functions in the Congo to the independent African states.

Nkrumah also supported the Soviet bid to seat Red China in the United Nations.

The African leader received a 58-second ovation at the end of his speech.

Gold Shares Rocket on Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP)—Gold shares spurted in a generally lower stock market early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

While most key stocks fell from fractions to around a point, the golds made advances in a similar range.

The drop in the United States government gold holdings to the lowest level since April 1940—the largest weekly decline in about 29 years—drew speculative interest to gold mining stocks.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon fell .50 to 211.10 with the industrials down .90, the rails down .20 and the utilities down .20.

Aircraft-missile shares were down, along with steel rails, most chemicals and electronics.

The market was irregularly lower at the start and continued that way. Some other nonferrous metals made gains.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 3.66 at 588.49. Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were unchanged.

Cost of Living Levels in August

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs leveled off in August after rising steadily but slowly since January, the Labor Department reported today.

The consumer price index compiled by the department's Bureau of Labor Statistics was unchanged last month at 126.6. This mean prices were 26.6 per cent higher than the average for 1947-49, the base years for the index.

The leveling off in prices was not unexpected. August price tags often show a small drop but seldom rise on the average.

Evan Clague, commissioner of labor statistics, indicated he looks for an upward movement in prices this month and can foresee no substantial downward movement in the next few years.

Powers Denies Report Made By Father

MOSCOW (AP)—Francis Gary Powers said in a letter published in the Communist party paper Pravda today he believes his U2 plane was destroyed by the shock wave of an explosion in the rear "or maybe on the right."

The pilot, serving a 10-year sentence on conviction of espionage, denied he had ever told his father, Oliver W. Powers of Pound, Va., that his high-flying jet was not downed by a Soviet rocket.

Powers also expressed hope he will not have to serve the full 10 years and reaffirmed his determination to return home when he is freed.

The flier testified at the opening of his trial Aug. 17 that he was at 68,000 feet on his May Day flight across the Soviet Union when he saw an orange burst and his plane went out of control, forcing him to bail out.

The Soviets say the U2 was downed by a single rocket and that their rockets can down intruder planes from any height, even those far beyond reach of ordinary antiaircraft artillery.

Indignant Woman Is Red-Faced Now

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—An indignant woman burst into suburban Oakwood's police station Thursday and told police that someone had stolen tennis rackets and other sports equipment from her car.

Why was she indignant? Because her car was parked just across the street from the police station. Police tried to calm her and said they'd send an officer to meet her at the car.

About 10 minutes later she ran back into the station and said there hadn't been any theft after all. She had gotten into the wrong car.

Public Notice A Vital Right

By JAMES E. POLLARD (Copyright)

In a large Midwestern city a public hearing was held in city council chambers in connection with the establishment of an important new viaduct as a limited access project. The newspaper story on the hearing said it was "just a formality since it had already been determined that the viaduct would be limited access."

But there was more to it than this. Actually the hearing legally cleared the way for the city to appropriate nearly a score of properties required for the project right of way. At the time, the city was still negotiating for four valuable railroad properties that were necessary to the project.

As of that moment the city and the railroads were nearly $1,000,000 apart on a price for these properties. If negotiations did not lead to agreement the hearing made it possible for the city to proceed to condemn the properties. In time, however, the problem was solved and the city got the condemnation.

Public hearings on proposed budgets, the letting of contracts and other meetings concerning public business are often poorly attended or get little attention. But this is the fault of the public and not of the law.

As with public notices, or legal advertising, such hearings are part of due process. Both are important to the public as well as to the parties immediately concerned. Their use, as required by law, is a matter of protecting public or individual rights, or both.

Young Nimrod Killed Returning from Hunt

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—A companion's shotgun apparently accidentally discharged and killed 17-year-old Paul Douglas McQuary as the two were returning to their homes in nearby Kirkersville from a day of quail hunting Thursday.

Harold Ford, 18, toled sheriff's deputies his gun, which he thought empty, went off as McQuary walked in front of him through an alley in Kirkersville.

Need To Shore Up Security

An authority on Latin - American affairs, Dr. Maurice H. Halperin, fled the United States seven years ago after Senate investigators inquired into his alleged espionage activities.

He has turned up in Moscow, where he admits he has been working for the Soviet Academy of Sciences "doing research in the foreign field, especially relating to underdeveloped countries."

Dismissed by Boston University because he refused to say whether he was a communist, Dr. Halperin is probably supplying the Soviet government information to which he had access during World War II as head of the Latin - American Division of the OSS. Presumably he has a part in Russia's intrusion in Cuban affairs.

Dr. Halperin's latest activities came to light when the State Department revealed that in July he had the effrontery to apply to the U. S. embassy in Moscow for renewal of his passport. He could do this under a 1958 U. S. Supreme Court decision which said that passports cannot be denied communists or other because of their political beliefs.

Preposterous as it may seem, there's no law against a traitor working for a foreign government if he can keep his treason a secret. Furthermore, he cannot be denied a passport when there's no court order for his arrest. In the absence of legal proof, the State Department is powerless.

The Supreme Court's decision weakens the country's security against international communism. Corrective legislation that would restore some of the State Department's authority over suspected traitors should receive early consideration by the new Congress.

Housecleaning in Autumn Yet!

NEW YORK (AP)—Autumn is the time wives of en pick to do one of their periodic, thorough jobs of housecleaning.

"The weather is just right for it," said my own wife, who is in this mood herself.

When I asked her why women did these things, she said: "It is good for their immortal souls. And it would be good for the immortal soul of our husband I knew if he would go to his office right now and clean up his desk."

"It would make him feel much better," she said.

Well, I thought to myself on the way to work, maybe she's right—and I really ought to clean off my desk, a task I've been postponing now for some 23 years.

But when I got to the office and saw my littered desk, my resolve melted. I did close my eyes, pick up a few papers and discard them without looking.

But then I had to stop. My hands instinctively refused to do the bidding of my mind.

After all, how could I destroy in the frenzy of an orderly moment this masterpiece of disorder I had spent so many painful years carelessly perfecting?

The answer was I couldn't. And I won't.

A man's desk is his home away from home. It is his paper-covered castle, and the fortress of his soul.

I hold with those who believe that a clean desk is the surest sign of a frightened mind, and that a lived-at desk should have a lived-at look.

It sometimes seems to me that people who maintain a clear and polished desk are people who lead polished lives that have only

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The world wasn't ready for the new freedoms and the changing mood of the last half of the 20th Century.

The result is one of the great dilemmas:

The contest between West and East to gain the allegiance of the new and independent nations emerging from colonialism and the older but smaller nations getting impatient with poverty.

Only 15 years ago the United Nations started out with 51 members. Gradually since then, as more nations became independent the membership climbed.

This week it shot up to 96 with the addition of 13 newly independent African nations and the former British colony of Cyprus.

Whole batches of them are neutral in the contest between communism and the West.

And in Latin America nations which felt the United States was taking them for granted have begun to assert themselves. They showed this when they wouldn't go all the way with this country in chastising Fidel Castro's Cuba.

Now—and it's almost as if it had happened suddenly—both the United States and Russia have to find new ways to attract the newly free people and the discontented ones.

No wonder Premier Nikita Khrushchev came to the United Nations in New York to speak, perform and otherwise offer inducements.

No wonder President Eisenhower arranged to address the General Assembly today and offer aid to the emerging new nations of Africa, and also invited the representatives of 18 Latin-American countries to lunch in New York.

Nothing better illustrates the unpreparedness of both this country and Russia to cope with this gigantic problem of winning new friends than the chaos which erupted when the Congo got independence from Belgium this summer.

The Russians tried to horn in with planes, trucks and technicians, hoping for a foothold in Africa, only to be thrown out in a lightning change of the Congolese government.

This country was trying to operate through the United Nations, and so far the world organization has been supported by the U.N. member nations overwhelmingly as the agency for bringing order and stability to the Congo.

But once it is established East and West will be in a struggle to win allegiance.

This whole show at the United Nations now — no matter what turn it takes — is a contest between the United States and Rus-

LAFF-A-DAY

New Fall Television Shows Now Starting To Pour In

NEW YORK (AP)—The summer drought is over and now the new fall shows are starting literally to pour in.

During the next week, for example, nine series will make their debuts on the three major networks, presidential candidates Richard M. Nixon and John F. Kennedy will have the first of their face-to-face TV meetings, there will be two dramatic specials and Fred Astaire makes his annual appearance on our screens.

Tonight, there's the premiere of NBC's 60-minute "Dan Raven," a police-action show based on Hollywood's Sunset Strip (7:30-8:30 Eastern Daylight Time).

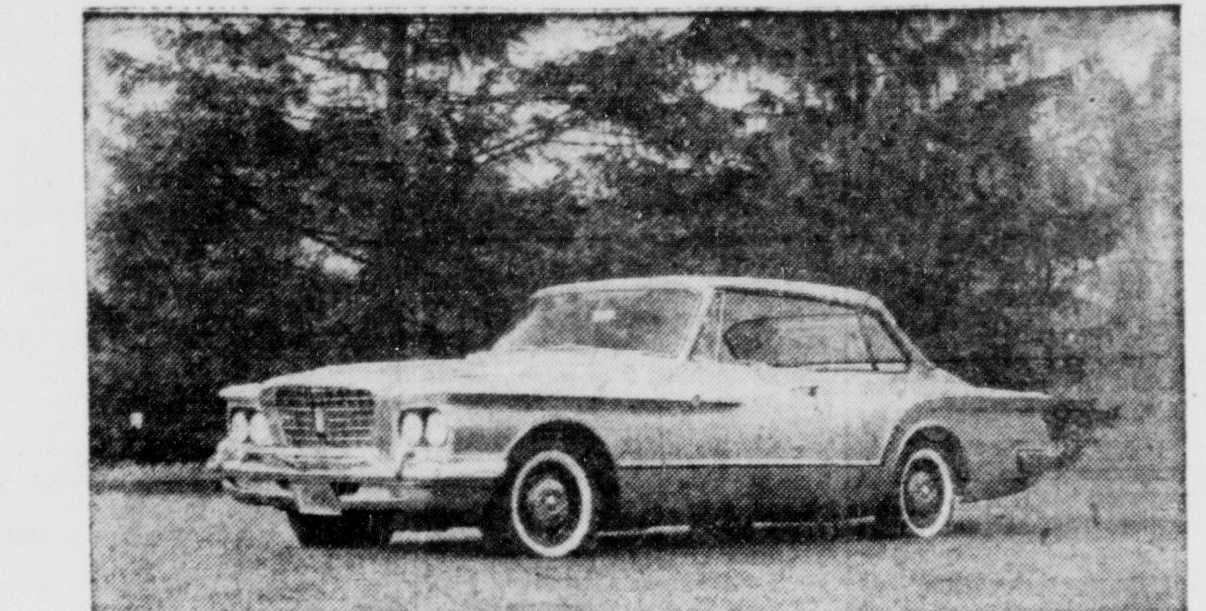

Monday afternoon (4:30-5) NBC will show its new "Here's Hollywood," a series of visits to the stars in their homes. But the big event of the day is the Nixon-Kennedy session, which will be carried by all three networks, 9:30-10:30 p.m., live from Chicago.

On Tuesday ABC's "Closeup," a public affairs series, starts (9-10 p.m.) with an examination of prejudice in the North. At the same time (9 p.m.) "The Tom Ewell Show," a situation comedy, bows in on CBS. And at 10, NBC's "Hour of Great Mysteries" will do "The Cat and The Canary."

"Hong Kong," ABC's action series about glamorous foreign correspondents, starts Wednesday night (7:30-8:30) and later (10-11) there's "Astaire Time" with Barrie Chase and Count Basie on NBC.

One must make a decision about the 7:30-8:30 p.m. hour Thursday night. CBS' "The Witness" series premieres with a drama about Lucky Luciano, but so does NBC's hour-long "Outlaws," a Western, and ABC's "Guestward Ho," a half hour situation comedy. At 9 p.m. there is ABC's "My Three Sons," with Fred MacMurray.

End adv for Fri Sept. 23.

VALIANT FOR '61 — Valiant offers a more complete line of body styles for 1961 in the low-price, compact car class. In addition to the four-door sedan and the suburban in two different series, there is now a two-door sedan in the V-100 series and a two-door hardtop in the V-200 series. The 1961 Valiant has been improved in many ways for operating economy, durability, performance and smoothness of ride. In external appearance, it continues to accent the beauty of line and proportion which won wide acclaim when the car first appeared last year. Valiant offer air conditioning for the first time as a dealer-installed option. It will appear here September 29 at Joe Moats Motor Sales.

You Want To Lose Weight? Try Playing Some Football

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP)—So you want to lose weight?

Try playing football.

It's nothing for an Ohio State grader to drop 10 pounds during a practice session or game, says the lady who's been in charge for the last decade of stuffing each team member with 4,000 calories per day.

Her job, explains Mrs. Ardine Davis, Ohio State University staff electrician in charge of the football squad's training table is to see that the status quo is maintained and that footballers turn up each morning at fighting weight.

"They shouldn't gain and they shouldn't lose from day to day," points out Mrs. Davis.

"We found they need upwards of 4,000 calories per day to stay even. When they lose during a workout, it's mostly dehydration so we pour water and fruit juices back into them."

The lads, with Mrs. Davis watching every bite they put in their mouths, have been living and eating three meals a day at the stadium dormitory since pre-season practice started Aug. 31, says Mrs. D.

"For dinner we give them fruit juice, salad, not less than eight ounces of cooked meat, two green vegetables, potatoes, two glasses (16 ounces altogether) of milk, one piece of bread, one pat of butter and generally fruit for dessert."

"When I started this, we used to let them go through a buffet line and pick out their own food. But they'd take too much of the wrong thing—ice cream, milk potatoes."

"Now we dish the food out on their plates. If anybody is overweight, he doesn't get potatoes and gravy, mayonnaise or bread and the like. And always fruit for dessert."

The most stunning weight-loser in Mrs. Davis' time was Dick Schafrath who ended his OSU days in 1957 and now is with the Cleveland Browns.

"Dick once lost 32 pounds during a day of practice but he was an extreme case. He always lost some eight and 10 pounds in the morning workout and again in the afternoon."

"He'd have to come right in off the field and drink a quart of fruit juices."

Is Saving For Rainy Day Popular Again?

Banking Institutions See Gain in Deposits; U.S. Bond Sale Climbs

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Is saving for a rainy day making a comeback in popularity? Institutions that encourage it think so.

The U. S. Treasury is selling more Savings Bonds. Many banks report a gain in time deposits. Savings and loan associations report a sharp increase in savings from July to August. Investment in life insurance policies continues to rise. And repayment of outstanding installment debt is taking a sizable portion of personal income—a sort of saving in reverse.

The pickup in the saving rate since July is in sharp contrast to the trend in the April-June quarter when the net savings pace slowed notably.

Mortgage debt went up by $3 billion and installment debt by $2 billion during that earlier period. Americans put aside a billion in the second quarter but a year before they had saved $3 billion.

The summer switch to larger savings may herald a more conservative trend in family budget thinking. If so, it fits in with reports that consumers are growing more cautious in their buying plans.

But it also could coincide with the drop in personal income in certain groups, notably farmers and those employed in industries where production slowdowns have been frequent—that is, many who might have gone on adding to their debts were holding onto what they had instead.

A record volume of repayment of installment debt in July held the net gain in that form of consumer credit to $249 million. A cut in consumer spending was also a big factor, but part of this was doubtless seasonal. The biggest net gain in installment debt reported so far this year was $533 million in April.

The total of personal income—now at a $407.6 billion annual rate—continued to rise during the summer, but the rate of increase was notably smaller, and for a number of groups there was a decline.

This is credited with dampening consumer spending ardor. Also working to build up caution was the uncertainty over business prospects disturbing international affairs, and weakness in the stock market.

Police Ambulance Upset in Collision

CLEVELAND (AP)—A police ambulance, speeding to a West Side home where an infant had swallowed bleach was struck broadside by a passenger car at an intersection Thursday.

The ambulance was knocked over on its side, but the two patrolmen in it and the auto's driver were not seriously hurt. The infant was taken to a hospital by another ambulance.

Political Campaign Recalls Jefferson's Religious Quote

NEW YORK (AP) — Thomas Jefferson once penned an informal note to a religious group which contained the phrase "wall of separation between church and state."

In the 158 years that followed, the phrase has become so woven into political-religious discussion it long ago lost its quotation marks.

Seldom has the relationship between church and state commanded more attention than the present day, which makes timely an examination of Jefferson's metaphorical remark and of the country's laws on the matter.

The Constitution contains two references to religion.

Article VI, which provides that "no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification for any office or public trust," and the First Amendment which declares "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

Both clauses emerged after no little debate. The First Amendment was offered in six different versions before the final wording was agreed on.

Nine of the 13 states at the time of the Revolution had full-fledged state churches (Congregational or Anglican), and at the time the First Amendment was drafted Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Maryland and South Carolina still had them.

The first piece of legislation providing for equality and freedom of religion in America was passed by Lord Baltimore's Catholic colony in Maryland in 1649.

This "Act Concerning Religion" provided that no person shall be "troubled or molested or discountenanced for or in respect of his or her religion nor in the free exercise thereof."

Jefferson wrote his "wall of separation" letter in response to an address expressing "the affectionate sentiments of esteem and approbation" accorded him by the

Danbury, Conn., Baptist Association—a group hard pressed in a state where another denomination was the established religion.

Here is the complete sentence from which the phrase was taken: "Believing with you that religion is a matter which lies solely between man and his God, that he owes account to none other for his faith or his worship, that the legislative powers of government reach actions only and not opinions, I contemplate with sovereign reverence that act of the whole American people which declared that their legislature should 'make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof,' thus building a wall of separation between church and state."

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP)—Curtis Patterson, 45, shot and wounded his wife during a family quarrel, then shot and killed himself Thursday. Mrs. Betty Patter on, 36, suffered severe injuries in the shoulder and was listed in fair condition at City Hospital. The couple had been married only a few months.

WALLPAPER WITH GEORGE WASHINGTON MOTIF—New York police plaster money on the walls and press it between newspapers for drying as they move a big step ahead in solving the $28,836 robbery of Freedomland Amusement park. The money—$3,000—was found in a leaky plastic bag under rocks in a 20-gallon tropical fish tank in home of Richard Hegenauer, 25, one of three suspects arrested.

Larger U.N. Council Is Asked by Japs

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) Japan suggested Friday the United Nations Security Council be enlarged to reflect the admission of many new members largely African and Asian states.

Foreign Minister Zenaro Kosaka made the suggestion—and labeled it urgent—in a speech to the U. N. General Assembly. He called on the assembly, where all member nations have equal voice to push disarmament efforts with "appropriate guidance" to the 10-nation committee which has suspended sessions without producing an agreement.

Kosaka used an endorsement of the principle of racial equality to lead up to his proposal for enlarging the Security Council, to which the U. N. charter entrusts the authority to call for military action by the world organization.

The council now consists of five permanent members, the United States, Britain, France, the Soviet Union and Nationalist China, and six other members named on a rotating basis.

Mrs. Hedges announced that the Southeast and Southwest district would hold their district luncheon meeting at 10 a. m. Tuesday at Lake Hope. Those who would like to attend this meeting are to make reservations with Miss Mary Hefner. Mrs. Hedges, also asked the members if they wish to attend the luncheon at Washington C. H. October 3 at the country club. The invitation to the luncheon was read by the secretary. Reservations must be in by Wednesday.

At the conclusion of the business, Mrs. McAbee, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Griffiths. Her topic was "Resolution and National Defense." Mrs. Griffiths, repeated the theme for the year, "what avail if freedom fail." She continued by saying, "our challenge and obligation and how shall we meet it. Our early settlers dreamed of liberty, freedom and the divine rights." Each generation should work to preserve the principles of government laid down in the constitution. No young American should lose sight of the wisdom of those great men who founded a nation in the belief that man was here on earth to become self-reliant and self-determined to glorify his creator. The constitution was designed to protect life, liberty and property.

In concluding Mrs. Griffiths quoted from Daniel Webster, when he wrote to General Washington, in 1832. "Now 138 years later, when we must defend our heritage against enemies foreign and domestic, we bring them respectfully to our attention. Other misfortunes may be borne, or their effects overcome. If disastrous wars sweep our commerce from the ocean, another generation may renew it; if it exhausts our treasury, future industry may replenish it; if it desolates and lay waste our fields, still, under a new cultivation, they will grow green again and ripen to future harvests."

At the conclusion of the meeting Susan Dumm was introduced by Mrs. Roland Featheringham. She gave a piano solo entitled, "Sonatina" by Clementi.

Mrs. David Martin, charter member of Ann Simpson Davis Chapter, Columbus, was a guest.

Dear Abby...

Kick Over the Traces, Man!

DEAR ABBY: The girl I go with has been putting the pressure on me to marry her. I can't even think of marriage until I finish college and get a job, but she keeps talking about "our home" and "our children". I like her more than any other girl I've ever gone with, but I haven't gone with many. When she tells me how much she loves me, I feel like a heel.

Her home life isn't very happy and she can't wait to get away from her parents. She loves my parents and they like her, but they don't want to see me married yet. How can I chill her without throwing her into a tailspin?

PRESSURED
DEAR PRESSURED: A frank talk is long overdue. Tell her you think it is unfair to ask her to wait indefinitely for you, so you think you should both start dating others. (Then prove you aren't bluffing by doing so immediately. She'll follow suit.) When a young man dates one girl exclusively, he usually gives her so much rope he soon finds himself roped in.

DEAR ABBY: Isn't there a law against bigamy? There is a man in our neighborhood who makes no secret of the fact that he has a wife on each end of his run. We are respectable people and want to know if we can do something about it.

RESPECTABLE NEIGHBORS
DEAR NEIGHBORS: There is indeed a law against bigamy, and since this man makes no secret of it surely both "wives" should have heard about it by now. If

50 Coeds at OU Made Ill by Food

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—About 50 women students at Ohio University became ill Wednesday afternoon and a university official said they apparently were victims of mild food poisoning. All are in satisfactory condition.

Dr. Ruth E. Matthews, associate health director, said all the victims became ill two to four hours after eating lunch at Lindley Hall. Fifteen were treated at the University health center and the rest at the dormitory itself.

About 500 coeds live and eat at Lindley Hall but the other residents were not affected, Dr. Matthews said. There were no similar illnesses at other dormitories for women students.

Logan Elm Trims Kittens by 32-6

Flashing plenty of speed in the backfield and aggressive play on the line, Logan Elm romped over Circleville's reserve football team here yesterday, 32-6.

The Logan Elm gridders of Coach Keith Merrin and Marcus Albright wasted little time as they scored in every quarter. Two touchdowns came in the first half and one each in the remaining three.

Halfback Roger Clarke scored twice in the first quarter on long runs. His first jaunt went 30 yards and a few minutes later he reeled off 35 yards to the payoff stripe.

Both tries for extra points were stopped. One was a pass attempt and the other a run.

IN THE second quarter Dick Dean, Logan Elm's other half of the speedy halfback combination, cut loose for a 60-yard gallop to the end zone. He started his thrust through the middle, then veered into the secondary.

Quarterback Bill Parker's pass to Dick Shaw was good for the extra points and Logan Elm commanded a 20-0 lead.

Circleville, playing mostly freshmen, earned its lone touchdown in the fourth period when Quarterback Dave Hannans uncorked a neat pass to Gary Betts which covered 35 yards to the two-yard line. Fullback Duke Fyffe then cracked over. A pass for the extra points was broken up.

Circleville made a bid for another score in the second quarter as the Kittens marched to the Logan Elm 15 only to be stopped by a penalty and some rugged defensive play by the visitors.

Logan Elm picked up its fourth touchdown in the third quarter on an unusual play. Bennie Griffith, almost stopped on a running play, lateraled to Clarke who then burst into the open and covered the distance to the goal line. The pass for extras was no good. The final Logan Elm tally came in the fourth stanza on a five-yard run by Dean. The run for points after was halted.

JIM Lint, Kitten coach, said his inexperienced youngsters performed well on offense but showed need for more work on defense. Doing most of the work in the backfield were Hannans, Betts, Fyffe and Bruce Horn.

Line play was anchored by Cleson Thomas, Tom Copland and Jim Barr.

Logan Elm was sparked by the running of Clarke and Dean, the ballhandling of Parker and the play of George Clifton and the entire LE forward wall.

The Kittens' next game is scheduled Monday when Amanda's reserves come here for a test at 6 p. m. Logan Elm also plays Monday at West Jefferson against the reserve team there.

Pacing Records Shattered, Bullet Hanover Wins Jug

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Quick-thinking Johnny Simpson and fleet-footed Bullet Hanover combined their talents Thursday for a $29,264 payoff and victory in the 11th Little Brown Jug for 3-year-old pacers.

In a feature filled with "firsts," the bay colt—winter book favorite and odds-on choice—turned a bad break into an asset to triumph over 10 other sidewheelers in the $66,000 classic.

Bullet Hanover, unfamiliar with the tight turns of a twice-around after only one such start this year, broke stride 70 yards from the start in the first heat. He finished ninth, under the careful tutelage of Simpson, while Muncy Hanover, owned by the Clearview Stable of Winthrop, Maine, romped home in front in 1:58 3-5.

But Simpson had thoughtfully dropped Bullet into the ninth spot when it became apparent he couldn't win—although he was fifth at the three-quarter mark. That finish put him on the rail, right behind Munch Hanover, as they launched the second heat—and the Bullet was breathing down Avery's neck.

Muncy Hanover led all the way from the quarter pole to within 50 yards of the finish, when Bullet peeled away from the rail and went around him to win by a half-length over fast-finishing Merrie Gesture.

That forced a third heat, and the crowd bet the Bullet down to 5. He had matched Muncy's time of 1:58 3-5 in the second heat, and he came right back to win by a length over betting time in 1:59 3-5.

The 5:56 4-5 total for the three heats eclipsed the Jug record of 6:06 2-5 for a divided race set by Meadow Rice and Wilmington's Star in 1952, a standard which was the world's best for 3-year-olds. It also knocked from the record books the 5:57 1-5 for a divided 3-heat race set in 1952 at Lexington, Ky., by Direct Rhythm and Prince Adios, a pair of aged horses.

Simpson, the 41-year-old driver from Matland, Fla., became the first to win three Jugs as he piloted Bullet Hanover, owned by Thomas W. Murphy of New York and L. B. Sheppard of Haover Pa., to the champion's circle. He previously won with Noble Adios in 1956 and Torpid in 1957, both in straight heats.

Here's how they finished, and their winnings, in the Jug:
Bullet Hanover (9-1-1), $29,264; Muncy Hanover (1-3-3), $13,302; Betting Time (2-4-2), $10,641; Merrie Gesture (5-2-6DH), $5,320; Sampson Direct (3-9-5), $3,457; Dancer Hanover (4-5-6DH) $2,660; Bright Knight (6-7-4), $1,773; Greentree Joey (7-6-DR); Merrie Adio (10-8-DR); Major Goose (8-DR); Jerry Way (11-DR).

Grid Parents In Spotlight

CHS-Rosary Test To Furnish Action

Parents' Night will be the special occasion for the Circleville-Rosary football game tonight on the CHS gridiron.

Parents of the Tigers will be introduced and will occupy special seats on the sidelines during the game. The kickoff will be at 8 p. m.

Indications are parents and all fans will be in for a rousing night of football. Rosary will bring a sound team here, one which hasn't lost a game in 22 outings, and Circleville will seek to get back on the win trail.

There may be several changes in the Tiger lineup in that Halfback Garold Dade and Tackle Cleson Thomas both reported back to practice this week after being sidelined with injuries.

A SWITCH probably will see Rupert Rudd at a line position rather than at fullback where he was posted in the Tigers' first two games. If this is the case the fullback nod will go to Sophomore Fred Moore or to Pat Rooney who has taken a turn at almost all backfield posts in addition to seeing duty on the forward wall.

Another switch may be the moving of Jake Bailey to his old defensive end spot instead of playing a corner linebacker. The insertion of Dade into the defensive lineup will make this possible.

The Tigers, battling the problems of inexperience, worked overtime this week in an effort to learn new assignments and polish up at all positions.

Rosary will bank its hopes on 13 lettermen, including six on the line and seven in the backfield. The two teams should lineup about even in weight although Rosary will have a definite edge in experience.

Martin Rolls High In Single, Series

Clark Martin of Blue Ribbon Dairy emerged top bowler in Wednesday Nite Independent loop action at Prairie Lanes.

Martin scattered the pins for a 198 single game and maintained the pace to record a 518 series.

Martin's performance also helped his Dairy squad take team three-game honors with 2,608 pins. High team single game was posted by One Hour Cleaners on the strength of a 926 score.

Thelma Carpenter Rolls High Game

Thelma Carpenter of DuPont B rolled high single game in Prairie Lanes bowling activity this week at Prairie Lanes. She collected a 176 game.

Jane Stonerock of Tink's Tavern captured high three game honors with a 476.

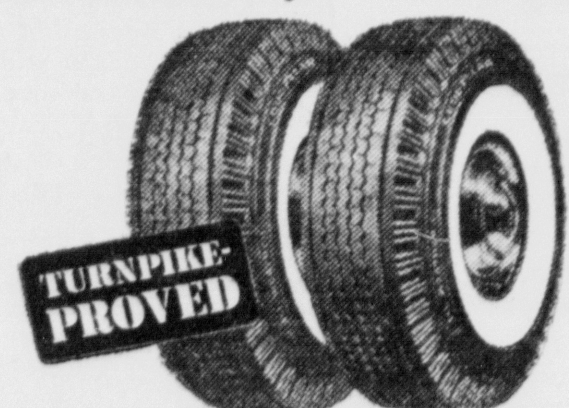

Tink's Tavern came in for additional honors by taking high team singles game and high three-game series. The team collected 799 pins in the single and 2,230 for the series.

General Electric No. 2 and DuPont A lead the league with seven wins and two losses each. Circleville Hardware, GE No. 5 and DuPont B are even for second with 6-3 records.

Ike Steps Up His Personal Diplomacy Talks

The President was greeted upon arriving in the city Thursday by flag-waving crowd of about 125,000 New Yorkers who virtually ignored Khrushchev's coming four days ago.

In the crowds was a Hungarian alien who was seized with a high powered rifle in a leather case. The rifle was not loaded, and the Hungarian explained that he just happened to be taking it to a gunsmith when the President's procession came along.

The gigantic shadow of Red China lay heavily across the deliberations at the U.N. building.

The 21-nation steering committee — which must approve topics proposed for discussion by the full assembly—headed today toward consideration of the Soviet proposal to seat Communist China in the U.N.

It is a perennial issue between East and West, and a highly aggravated one.

The U.S. delegation will move to shelve the Soviet proposal on this question for another year.

The first clash over Red China came Thursday. It resulted in another set-back for the Communists.

The steering committee voted to put "the question of Tibet" on the agenda for discussion. This refers to Chinese Communist operations in the remote, mountainous nation, where the Reds are reported to have killed thousands of Tibetans.

The committee's action was the third defeat for Khrushchev in the assembly.

Earlier in the emergency session, an Afro-Asian resolution was approved, backing up the actions of Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld in the Congo. Next came the election of Ireland's Frederick H. Boland, as assembly president at the regular session over the Communists candidate.

But, outside the U.N. Khrushchev won a point.

The State Department granted him permission to leave Manhattan island and spend the weekend on Long Island. The Soviet U.N. delegation has an estate at Glen Cove.

Khrushchev has been restricted to Manhattan, until now. The State Department said this was necessary in order to simplify the task of protecting him.

Reaction to Eisenhower's speech brought some favorable comment even from Khrushchev and Tito.

In a jovial mood at the Togolese reception, Khrushchev called it conciliatory. Earlier, however, he had brushed aside question about it with a curt, "I am going to lunch."

Tito had similar thoughts. "Moderate," the interpreters translated his comment. Then,

London Gets Reputation for Naughtiness

LONDON (AP) — With more than 1,000 stripteasers nightly shedding their chemises in 200 clubs, London has become perhaps the naughtiest capital in Europe.

A new law cleared the streets of prostitutes. Now instead of thronging the thoroughfares of the British capital, the good-time girls are cluttering the private clubs now mushrooming in London.

In the single section of Stepney, at least 32 private clubs are operating where you can pick up a girl almost as easily as you can pick up the check.

In none of Europe's capitals can you see in volume the sort of stripping that blatantly goes on in London.

One striptease club says it's members include several millionaires and 10 members of the British Parliament.

Some Londoners predict the town's going to get even naughtier, because of gambling.

They say the country's new gambling laws—which will probably go into effect in the next 12 months — will allow baccarat, chemin de fer and roulette.

Already the money spent on gambling, mostly horse racing, totals more than 647 million pounds ($1,811,600,000) annually.

The Churches' Council on Gambling is taking a serious view of the situation, particularly of what might lie ahead.

Said a spokesman in an interview: "Once individuals in desperation gambled recklessly. In the present time it is rather that a sense of social unease is growing in the general mind of society, bringing restlessness to more and more individuals."

Ex-Senator Feuds With Tax Collector

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service contends Earle C. Clements, former Democratic senator from Kentucky and onetime governor of that state, filed fraudulent income tax returns for the years 1948 through 1956. It seeks $291,289 from him, in taxes and penalties.

Clements, who is now coordinator of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's campaign for the vice presidency, denies the allegations and has taken the case to the U. S. Tax Court. He claims he has a refund coming.

Polaris Flops On Pair of Sub Shots

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Polaris missile program has been dealt a damaging blow by the failure of two rockets launched within three hours from a submerged submarine.

The pair of fizzles Thursday may delay the Navy's plan to send the first combat-ready Polaris submarine to sea within a few weeks.

"It was a black day for Polaris," an official commented. Both missiles were launched from the nuclear submarine Patrick Henry as she rode 90 feet beneath the Atlantic, about 30 miles off Cape Canaveral.

The first rocket broke through the surface, but failed to ignite and fell back into the ocean. The second ignited, but went out of control and was destroyed by the range safety officer.

An official said the Patrick Henry, which has a record of three failures in four firings in the last nine days, probably will be held over at Cape Canaveral for additional tests. This could prevent the submarine from going on combat-ready patrol in December as scheduled.

The first Polaris sub, the George Washington, is slated to take the first operational load of 16 missiles on station in late October or early November. The official hinted that this might be postponed unless the trouble is pinpointed soon.

The George Washington successfully fired three of four missiles in underwater tests here in midsummer.
